Meet humorous, clever, and imaginative Owen.

Owen enjoys doing fun activities such as watching TV or playing video games on his laptop or Xbox. His favorite video games to play are Roblox and Farming Simulator. When he is not playing video games, he enjoys riding his bike or playing sports outdoors. He also loves to watch TV shows such as The Rookie and Pokémon. He could not think of his favorite movie but, did like Minions: The Rise of Gru.

Owen has enjoyed going to school and is working on improving his grades. His favorite class is history because he loves learning about the Ancient Greeks. Owen says he wants to be in the Army, the SWAT, or be a tactical military police officer when he gets older. A dream of his, is to one day be a YouTube celebrity or professional video-gamer like 'Typical Gamer' on YouTube.

Owen says his perfect day would include playing video games, getting food, and spending time at Dave and Busters or Sky Zone. Of course, if this is not possible, Owen says he also would love to go to his favorite restaurant, Red Lobster.

Owen would benefit from a one or two-parent family who can provide him with a lot of attention. His ideal family would be able to provide him a lot of structure and routine. Owen says he would like to be adopted by a forever family that would help him with stability because he is tired of moving and who let him play video games. He wants interested families to know that he is loving and kind.

Owen was born in 2006.
