Meet Prince Eli!

This exuberant boy is sure to keep you on your toes as you get to know all about who he is.

Full of energy and adventure, Eli will not fail in bringing both smiles and laughter to your life! He loves to learn about dinosaurs and show off his collection of toys. He also names Spiderman and Captain America as his favorite superheroes - ask him to show you how he shoots webs out of his hands and climbs up buildings!

Eli enjoys being active and will spend hours in the backyard playing soccer and improving upon his natural skills. During the summer, he likes to get his energy out at the trampoline park, local jungle gyms, or swimming in the pool. However, at the end of the day, nothing brings Eli more joy than getting to cuddle up and watch a movie with those he is closest to.

Eli loves to soak up attention and would do best with a mom and dad or single-father family who can provide him with support, structure, and positive reinforcement. As an only child, he would be able to give back in two-fold the affection and sweetness that he is shown by a forever family. Only in-state families and families with foster care and/or adoption experience are being considered at this time.

Prince Eli was born in 2013.
