

ConnectOne Meet Armando!

Armando is a remarkable boy with a heart full of dreams and a passion for soccer.

Despite his shy and quiet nature, Armando's gentle spirit shines through. He also loves video games, Uno, and watching pro football. He's quite a thrill-seeker and enjoys jumping and playing at places like Sky Zone.

An instant win with Armando is taking him out for his favorite food, Tacos. He loves tacos and isn't too picky about the restaurant if they make a good taco.

Armando would thrive in a low-key, warm, and loving two-parent family environment. He would do best with parents who have experience and understand the need for patience as they help Armando work through his trauma. He is best suited as an only child or significantly younger sibling. Armando would also like a family to help him explore and stay connected with his Hispanic heritage.

Armando is on a journey to find his forever home, where he can continue pursuing his dreams of becoming a professional soccer player and, more importantly, where he can experience the love, support, and stability of a caring family.

Armando was born in 2009.
